

Undergraduate and BS/MS Spring Semester Enrollment Guide

For students on new SEMESTER CS curriculum. If you are unsure which curriculum you are on, please check with your academic advisor.

How to Search for General Education Perspectives/Electives/Writing Intensive Courses

You can search for open Gen Ed Perspectives, Electives, and Writing Intensive courses in SIS in the Class Search section under “Additional Search Criteria”. For example, under “Course Attribute” click on the magnifying glass and then click on the section titled “Gen Ed Elective Category”. Then click on the magnifying glass under “Course Attribute Value” and click on the “GE” link. You should then be able to click on search and a list of open courses should pop up. You can do the same thing when searching for certain perspectives (such as Global, Social, etc. and Writing Intensive courses).

Use Additional Search Criteria to narrow your search results.

Declaring Your Immersion

If you are ready to declare your Immersion, you will need to submit an Immersion Authorization Form from the Office of the Registrar’s website at <http://www.rit.edu/academicaffairs/registrar/node/205/attachment>.

Co-op

Students must have 2nd year status to co-op. Any permission exceptions to co-op must be pre-approved by the CS Undergraduate Coordinator in writing. If you need to digress from the standard one summer and two semester co-op requirement, if you want to co-op for longer than two consecutive terms, or if you want to end on a co-op term, you need permission from Henry Etlinger at hae@cs.rit.edu.
