

The graph is a complex network of 100 nodes and numerous edges. The nodes are labeled with IDs, and the edges are labeled 'Single'. The graph is highly interconnected, with many nodes having multiple connections. The layout is somewhat circular, with nodes distributed around the perimeter and in the center. The edges are represented by black lines, and the labels 'Single' are placed near the edges.