

The diagram illustrates a network of nodes and their connections. The nodes are labeled with numbers and subscripts, and the connections are labeled 'Single'. The network is complex, with many nodes having multiple connections. The nodes are distributed across the image, with some clusters and some isolated nodes. The connections are represented by lines, and the labels 'Single' are placed near the lines.