

The chemical structure is a complex polycyclic molecule. It features a central core with several fused and bridged rings. Key functional groups include a fluorine atom (F) and a hydroxyl group (OH) on the upper left, and two acetyl groups (CH₃CO-) on the right. The structure is rendered with a rainbow color scheme for the atoms and bonds.

