

Turtle Graphics Gallery

A Recursive Art Show

January 23-25, 2013, Golisano-3660

The students of CS1 will show off their recursive, Python Turtle Graphics images in the Student Center. There will be pizza and pop on Friday at noon, January 25. Attendees can vote on their favorite image, and the top vote-getters will receive prizes.

This image won first prize in the Fall of 2012.
